BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAIL ROAD COM- PANY —Remarks of the governor upon the dividend of the,	A.	15
Communication from the president of the, to the chairman of the committee on Ways and Means,	D.
Reasons for addressing the communica- tion,	“	3
Annual reports shows the inducements which led to the adoption of the dividend,	“	4
In the earlier history of the company, the authority of the board, to apply their net ac- tual revenue, to the purposes of construction questioned,	“	“
Part of the road needing renovation, com- mittee on finance authorised to borrow the necessary amount,	“	5
Expecting to obtain the loan, the repair commenced,	“	6
Board authorised by their charter to pay to their stockholders such amount as they had taken from the annual receipts, for the purpose of reconstruction,	“	7

	Doc.	Pg.
BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAIL ROAD COMPANY—
This proceeding warranted by analogous acts of the board sanctioned by the State,	D	8
After the amount used for repairs and the appropriation to the sinking fund, a cash dividend of only one per cent. remained,	"	11
Board knew that to a large portion of stockholders, payment in bonds would be scarcely less acceptable than cash,	"	"
Bonds of the company being of a greater value than those of the State, it would be in the power of the Treasurer to put the State upon a better footing than any other stockholder,	"	"
This scheme approved by a majority of the stockholders,	"	12
Acknowledged by the Governor, that the State in some form has received her full amount of interest,	"	13
Actual receipts of the State, the cash dividend of 1 per cent. included, amount to $7\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. and if the dividend as proposed by the board, had been accepted, the State might by exchange of bonds have realized $3\frac{3}{4}$ per cent,	"	"
In determining to pay the full amount of dividend in cash to those holding less than fifty shares, the board did not design to give a preference to any class of stockholders,	"	14
Analogy between this and the Washington road considered,	"	15
Remarks of the committee on ways and means upon the dividend of the,	H.	7
Opinion of the Attorney General, in reference to the legality of the recent dividend declared by the,	R.
